REV. W. S. BROOKS RETURNS TO SAINT PAUL A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. W. Sampson Brooks has been returned to the St. Paul A. M. E. Church to serve another year. During the four years Rev. Brooks has been pastor of this memorable church he has been instrumental in lifting the greatest burden the church debt from the shoulders of its struggling members. Appreciative of his great work, and in welcome to his return, the members have drafted the following resolutions at a church meeting last Tuesday night.

We, the officers and members of St. Paul A. M. E. Church, feel very fortunate in the re-appointing of Rev. W. Sampson Brooks, our beloved pastor, to serve us for another year. The citizens of St. Louis are also to be congratulated in having this eminent divine among them, one who has spent the past four years in unselfish laboring among us for the betterment of our people, and the good work done by him in raising and clearing this church of its mortgage debt.

We feel that it is our most solemn duty to express at this time to him and to the Bishop, Rt. Rev. H. Blanton, our sincere appreciation of his work and the thoughtfulness of the good Bishop of his deep interest in the appointment.

The most remarkable thing accomplished by Rev. Brooks was in organizing the forces of this church and raising during the first twelve months of his pastorate the above sum, thus entitling him to be crowned the "Western King of Finance," as no other minister in a colored church in the world ever accomplished such a thing.

We feel that such work should be made known to the world, that others may be inspired to encourage in their work of lifting the race. Be it therefore resolved, That a copy of this resolution be given to Rev. W. Sampson Brooks, a copy furnished Bishop Parks and a copy to the press.

Very respectfully,

Silver Grill Receives High Sanitary Mark

Cuisine of Famous Social Center
Ranks With Best Hotels and Cafes in City

Silver Grill, Messrs. Rice and Thompson's famous cafe, at 2321 Market Street, has added another laurel to its excellency. It has been rated by the Board of Health as the most sanitary eating place, hotel or cafe, in the city. So consistent are the pure food ideas of the managers, that no healthier or more wholesome viands can come from midday's kitchen.

That St. Louisans well appreciate this fact is proven by the many parties and banquets noticed during the last week. Last Saturday the informal Danes were entertained, with an elaborate luncheon, by Mrs. W. A. Wilkerson. Wednesday night two large banquets were given: One in honor of Mrs. Dollie Stevens, of Hannibal; and the other given by the Nonpareil Club, in honor of the Symposium Club. The Grill is now prepared to give strictly private service to parties, where the popular pastimes of dancing and cards can be enjoyed.

Headquarters for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and the chairman of the Finance Committee. The following are the names which will be authorized to collect funds and distribute literature, solicit and collect funds and talk to the people.

The district to be canvassed is bounded on the east by Jefferson Avenue, west by Grand Avenue, south by Chestnut and north by St. Louis Avenue. Every Negro house in this entire fifty will be entered on the 5th. Fifty men and women have been selected to take the blocks in the afternoon, and will be authorized to collect funds and distribute literature, solicit and collect funds and talk to the people.

It has been reported that Col. B. E. Watkins has purchased the barber shop and pool room at 3149 Laclade Avenue, which was formerly owned by Sam Andrews. When seen by an Argus reporter, Col. Watkins admitted that the deal had been closed and stated that it was his intention to have extensive repairing and decorating done, and when finished, he will have one of the finest tonorial parlors in the city. In addition to the regular hot and cold baths, manicuring with a lady in charge will be a special feature.

Col. Watkins is well known among the business, social and fraternal set of this city. Being Colonel of the Union Bank of the Knights of Pythias of Mo., he has been active in promoting business enterprises of the city, and has taken a leading part in social and fraternal affairs.

His activity has drawn around him a host of friends who predict for him a rapid success in his new business undertaking.

ASSOCIATION

WHY NEGLECT THE KIDDIES?

The portable Cottage Avenue public school buildings have no toilet conveniences for the little boys and girls attending. This condition is positively contrary to the law. The little fellows must cross the street to Summer High. It is a hardship in winter and should be remedied at once. The Board of Education should see to it that a sanitary and convenient building, in compliance with the law is constructed.

SEGREGATION MEANS YOU.

What am I doing to help defeat the segregation movement in St. Louis? This is the proper question for everyone to ask himself. A well meaning citizen asked the Argus this week, "Why don't you people get busy on segregation, spread it out on the highways and byways, and not expect everybody to come to the churches to hear it discussed." The answer is simple. "It takes money to conduct a campaign. The churches have opened their doors for mass meetings. This about covers the appropriation to combat the pending evil. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is active; holding meetings where freely welcomed and sending out thousands of letters. The deplorable fact is, thousands of citizens are depending upon some one else to carry on the fight. Yet all are effected alike."

The question is not, what is the other fellow doing, but what are you doing yourself? It's your business, your interest and the future of your own family are at stake. Individuality is the strongest trump in this fight. Every person, opposed to segregation is a member of the committee fighting this un-American and unconstitutional idea. If the fight is lost, it will be your fault if you have failed to do your part. Segregation means you, anti-segregation is up to you.

Get busy and quit dodging behind some one else.

JOHN HOCKLEY SMILEY.

In the death of John Smiley, associate editor of the Chicago Defender, the Negro press sustains a great loss. Not only did his ability as a writer and head-line man contribute much to Negro journalism, but the dignity that he put in his work as a newspaper man added much to the profession.

N. N. B. L. HITS NAIL ON HEAD.

Letter No. 4, sent out by the National Negro Business League a short time ago, met a hearty response from most of the newspapers devoted to the interest of the race.

The significance of the letter was the fact that the Negro press has proven itself a most powerful factor for good in the community and that the Negro merchant who fails to take advantage of the advertising space to help build his own business is in his own light. We congratulate the League on the letter, for the truths contained therein were too true and complete, requiring no further comment.

LET'S HAVE FAIR PLAY.

The practice of the leaders of the Republican party in Missouri of shutting the Negro out of party councils has riled that element until it is protesting loudly. The party leaders have been given to understand that the Negro is tired of having pre-arranged seats rammed down his throat. He is sick of alternateships and flunky positions where he can be of no use save ornamental. What the Negro wants is real bona fide participation in the councils, work and rewards of victory that concern his party. This much he is entitled to, and nothing else will satisfy him.

The Negroes of Missouri want a delegate at large to the next National Convention. They also desire one delegate each from the 5th, 7th and 12th congressional districts. They are willing to have their share of responsibility and work checked up to them and demand a just share of the rewards of victory. Several representative places should be given them, in city, state or national government. The party will find fair treatment of the Negro a paying investment.

A. U. K. & D. OF A. OFFICERS RECEIVE GREAT HONORS IN KANSAS CITY, MO.

Mrs. Ada Harris, of St. Louis, Mo., state grand queen, and Mrs. Julia Prince, National District Deputy of the A. U. TESTIMONIALS

Major's Oxford College, St. Louis, Mo.

To whom it may concern:

Before I saw your advertisement in the St. Louis Argus, I was like a ship without a captain. I knew enough about hair to work to earn a living but not enough to pass an examination before a college of hair culture. When I was asked where I learned my beauty treatments, I would shiver in my boots because I had no Oxford College to back me. But today I am proud and happy because I am a graduate of the Oxford System and find all of my customers so well pleased. I am gaining new customers every day and must thank you again, I beg to remain,

Yours truly,

Mme. Fields-Voting, Agt. 49th and 11st St., New York City. Major's Oxford College, St. Louis, Mo.

To whom it may concern:

With many thanks for meeting the name of Oxford College, I will say that I have had some dealings with white colleges in the city of Chicago but find in the Oxford College more pleasure and better understanding than any of the others I have dealt with.

In truth I find pleasure in my work for the simple reason, your preparations have given me much satisfaction and when I am pleased with the results, I know my customers must be—at least I have found it so—so

I trust to be successful.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Dr. G. W. Peck, the new pastor of St. James A. M. E. Church, will speak at the Men's Meeting Sunday afternoon, at 3:45 at Pyramus Hall. His subject will be, "Echoes." Dr. Peck for six years was a member of the Los Angeles Association Board of Managers, and for five years was intimately connected with the Kansas City movement. While in Kansas City Dr. Peck was the pastor of Allen Temple, the largest church of the A. M. E. denomination in Kansas City, if not the largest of all our churches in that city; 3:45 is the time. Pyramus Hall is the place where the men will gather Sunday afternoon.

Fun and frolic will be the order of the day at the Y. M. C. A. Friday night, when Halloween will be celebrated. All the devils and ghosts and witches that the place can hold will be present.

On last Sunday Mr. W. E. B. Beilmer, the manager of the Equitable Insurance Company, brought a stirring message to the men's meeting. A hundred and thirty men were present and enjoyed the meeting. Preparations are still being made for the campaign for the largest building and equipment. On Wednesday, of this week, a conference was held between the College of Business Board and a committee from the board of directors to make definite and final plans.

PLEASANT GREEN NOTES

Pleasant Green Church is having a great success in her fall revival. Sixty converts have confessed their faith in Jesus and are making ready for the baptizing the first Sunday in November, in the Mississippi River. Rev. Wm. Beasley, of Kansas, a brother of Deacon Beasley, of the Pleasant Green Church, was with us last week and preached soul-stirring sermons. Many souls came to Christ from the hearing of his sermons.

This week we have Rev. J. W. Clay, pastor of King Solomon Baptist Church, Kansas City, Kansas, who has been staying here for one of the greatest prospects of this day and all of our friends are invited to come hear him and bring a friend.

To Whom It May Concern:

I began, Mme. Anderson's Hair Treatment two years ago, and I can truthfully say that it has improved my hair wonderfully and I am well pleased with it. I wish everyone could see for themselves the wonderful change it has made in my hair. I have tried others, but find Mme. Anderson's the best of all.

Yours truly,

Emma Logan, 3024 Laclede. Booneville, Mo., Oct. 24, 1915.

To Whom It May Concern:

We have used Mme. Anderson's Hair preparation for two months, it not only lengthens, but thickens the hair and removes dandruff. Too many can not be said in praise of Mme. Anderson's preparation. We would not be without it.

ATHLETICS AND AMUSEMENTS
By H. T. R.

THEATRES
THE "BLUES" DOMINATE THE BOOKER WASHINGTON SHOW

The entire atmosphere of the Booker Washington Theater, this week is impregnated with the "Blues." From the time Miss Laura Smith enters in the first act until "String Beans" makes his first exit, the "Blues" reign supreme. If there is a variety of this musical time that is not on display, it has not been "brought out" yet. One thing cannot be denied, there is a colony of admirers of "The Blues" in St. Louis and the audience is flocking to the Booker Washington Theater every night and the patrons are having a hilarious time.

Miss Laura Smith opens the show with three song numbers, all in a lighter vein, and garnished with their characteristic gesticulations. She is carrying the house by storm.

Johnnie Woods and his famous manikin, "Little Henry," are with us again. This pair bring us some new comedy, interlarded with the brightest lines of the old. As usual, their range of humor is making a big hit. Little Henry is still addicted to the gin habit and gets in bad on account of his indulgence. The act is as popular as ever.

String Beans and Sweetie May are presenting the typical "Beans" comedy with a little variation and keep the house in an uproar throughout the act. Beans performs on the piano, executes his eccentric steps and actions and lives up to his reputation. Miss May has improved in health and is displaying an art quite superior to that in her previous visit here.

AT THE PEOPLE'S THEATRE

Beatrice West, Dorothy Brown. An olio of specialties is followed by an after-piece changed nightly. Miss Marian Fitzhugh presides at the piano and Charles Whitlor handles the drums. A big feature Saturday (tonight) will be the country store.

A special vaudeville bill will be presented Sunday night and the Argus readers can see the show free Monday night by cutting out the following coupon and presenting it at the door.
